

Bucks Senior Cup final

The Slough Town squad. Back row from left to right: Tommy Lawrence (manager), John Graham (trainer), Terry Reardon, Ian Wolstenholme, Terry Male, Stewart Jamieson, Mick Chatterton, Laurie Churchill (coach). Middle row (from L to R): Ian Reid, Micky O'Sullivan, Steve Crosby, Roger Day, Ray Eaton, Keith Mead. Front row (from L to R): Geoff. Anthony, Alf D'Arcy, Martin Swadling, Kenny Gaine.

Seven caps in Rebels line-up

HERE'S a run down on the Slough players who face Wycombe Wanderers in the Berks and Bucks Senior Cup final at Chesham on Monday. It is noticeable that they have six England Amateur Internationals in the line up and one Welsh cap — Geoff Anthony — who will be playing against his former club.

IAN WOLSTENHOLME (goalkeeper): Wolstenholme, aged 30, is a former England amateur international who was one of several players to join Slough from Enfield in 1970. He played in two Amateur Cup Finals for Enfield and has three Isthmian and one Athenian League championship to his credit. Gained Football League experience with York City.

IAN REID (right-back): Holder of 28 England amateur caps, Ian, aged 30, has played in three Amateur Cup finals — with Crook Town, Enfield and now Slough. His other clubs were Bishop Auckland and Hitchin.

RAY EATON (left-back): A current England international, the 24-year-old Eaton joined Slough from Boreham Wood last term and this season saw him make his first Amateur Cup final appearance. Was previously with Hitchin and Letchworth and his aggressive style helped Slough win the Athenian League title last year.

KEITH MEAD (centre-back): Aged 27, Mead gained two England caps with Slough in 1970 following three seasons at Walton and Hershham. His only other club was Southall. Went on tour with Wycombe last year and he has twice gained Athenian League championship honours.

ALF D'ARCY (centre-back): The 38-year-old D'Arcy is the most experienced and respected defender in amateur football. Assistant manager of the club he joined from Enfield in 1970. Alf played in four Amateur Cup finals before he came to Slough. During his career with Barnet, Hitchin and Enfield, D'Arcy gained 32 England caps and played for Great Britain eight times.

TERRY REARDON (mid-field): Brother of Wanderers assistant manager John, Terry, aged 28, is Slough's longest serving player and has made over 300 appearances for the club. He is, in fact, the only member of Bob Gibbs' squad to survive the arrival of Tommy Lawrence as manager. His only other club was Chesham United with whom he spent two seasons. He has represented Berks and Bucks, F.A. XI's and has played in every position for Slough except goalkeeper.

ROGER DAY (mid-field): Slough skipper Day, is one of three current internationals in the side. Like Reid and D'Arcy, he is an ex-England captain with 30 caps to his credit. He has won Athenian and Isthmian League championship medals and two Amateur Cup winners' medals during his spell with Enfield.

KENNY GAINE (mid-field): Gaine, aged 19, joined Slough this season from Epping Town following a season with Arsenal. He has scored 11 goals since winning a regular place a few months ago.

MICKY CHATTERTON (striker): Aged 23, the bustling Chatterton joined Slough in the close season from Maidenhead United and is their top marksman with over 30 goals. He scored five on his debut against Harlow and has gained County and F.A. honours.

MICKY O'SULLIVAN (striker): After playing for Tottenham Juniors and receiving youth honours with Berks and Bucks, Micky joined his local club Slough. Aged 22, O'Sullivan helped Slough win the Athenian League and the County Cup last season.

GEOFF ANTHONY (striker): A Welsh international with 11 caps, 25-year-old Geoff is no stranger to Wycombe fans. He spent three seasons with the Blues reaching the quarter-finals of the Amateur Cup twice and gaining League championship honours in 1969-70. His other club was St. Albans City.

MARTIN SWADLING (mid-field): A 17-year-old product of Slough Town's youth team, Swadling has played for Slough Schoolboys sides since the age of ten. West Ham and Chelsea are among the clubs who have watched him this season.

STEWART JAMIESON: Aged 23, Jamieson joined Slough in 1971 while at Reading University. He was previously with Queens Park, Glasgow, and received Scottish schoolboy honours. Came on as substitute in the Cup final at Wembley.

STEVE CROSBY: A 21-year-old defender, Crosby is in his second spell with Slough. He originally joined them from Enfield in 1970 and then returned this season following a spell with Boreham Wood.

Micky O'Sullivan